CRIME PREVENTION ALERT

April 26, 2013

Suspect - Annoy/Molest Juvenile Case

Case #: S13-04-0303
Date/Time of incident: 04-25-13/0835 hours
Location of incident: San Diego City College
Suspect Description: Age: 40-50
Race: Black (Possibly Jamaican)
Sex: Male
Height: 5' 7"
Build: Medium
Hair: Black - Dreadlocks
Clothing: White pants, shirt, hat and shoes. Brown jacket.

On April 25, 2013 at 8:35am, the suspect entered into the City College cafeteria and walked behind two female juveniles who attend the Early Middle College high school program located on the City College campus. The suspect placed his hand on one of the female's shoulder and gently rubbed her as he attempted to have a conversation with her. The juvenile feared for her safety and contacted her teacher. Upon interviewing several students, the suspect has been seen following or harassing students in the past on the City College campus.

The suspect was seen with a black roll-away type bag. The victim and witnesses claim that the suspect changes his attire multiple times while on the City College campus.
