INTRODUCTION

Message from the Chancellor

I am pleased to introduce the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) Style Guide. The District's mission in providing an affordable and quality education to the greater community requires clear and effective communication. The importance of having a consistent message is crucial in supporting these efforts. This style guide outlines standards on how the District logos and its elements (i.e., colors, typography, etc.) can be used, which all departments and campuses should follow.

The SDCCD Style Guide and its implementation are overseen by the Communications and Public Relations office located at the District. If you have questions regarding logo usage, call 619-388-6914 or email cpr@sdccd.edu.

I thank you for your cooperation in adhering to these guidelines so the SDCCD can convey a clear and consistent graphic image to the public.

INTRODUCTION

The Official District Logo

The District logo is to be used on all print, electronic, and digital communications and signage representing the San Diego Community College District and its colleges. By itself, it's a strong and discernible symbol of our organization. This logo will continue to remain a well recognized mark when used in conjunction with similar standards and guidelines.

The use of the District logo is closely monitored by the Communications and Public Relations office of the San Diego Community College District.

The District logo can be downloaded from the District website at sdccd.edu/logo.

THE DISTRICT LOGO

Primary

The logo is the District symbol (six identical diamonds enclosed with rings). This logo is the official identifying mark of the District. The logo shall be used on all printed and online communications. It shall also be used to identify District facilities and property. All such applications of the logo shall be in compliance outlined in this style guide.

The logo consists of the District seal and San Diego Community College District text. The logo should not be redrawn, digitally manipulated, or altered.

The logo must always be reproduced from a digital master reference. This is available in eps, jpg, and png formats. Please ensure the appropriate artwork format is used.

Exclusion Zone

In order to maximize its visual presence, the logo requires a surrounding area clear of any other graphic elements or text.

The District logo should have some space around it so as not to lose focus or draw attention away from its importance. No other type, images, or miscellaneous graphics should interfere with the logo or its required space allowance. Keeping a diamond's width all the way around the circumference of the logo in white space, gives the logo the breathing room it needs to stand out. One diamond's width is mandatory as a minimum.

This is not a placement guide. It is a minimum only.

For use of the logo with departmental names, please see page 16.

THE DISTRICT LOGO

Recommended Size

To ensure the District logo reproduces clearly and it is legible in all applications, do not reduce size of the logo to less than five eighths of an inch (5/8”).

Applications of the logo will determine the size and color of logo to use. Always proof before sending for print or other final submission. Review the overall look because different file types will print out differently and must be used with the appropriate program.

There are some instances where the District logo can be used by itself – seal only. In those particular circumstances, the publication or application will need to be reviewed and approved by the District’s Communications and Public Relations office.

All approved logos can be obtained from the District Communications and Public Relations office or downloaded at sdccd.edu/logo.

The seal may not be modified.

Other Logos

The colleges may create special occasion logos but on a limited basis with prior approval from the Communications and Public Relations office. Logos created and used for a particular event must be discontinued after the conclusion of the event. Official District offices and departments are not allowed to create their own logos.

Athletic logos are overseen by each college's Athletics department and cannot be used by academic departments or substituted for the official college logos. For more information, please contact the Athletic Director for the campus.

TYPOGRAPHY

Typeface

Adobe Garamond is a serifed font to be used most times, including body copy and identity. As a secondary font, Arial, a sans serif font can be used (e.g., headlines or other attention grabbing areas). All variations in this family are acceptable as an accent typeface as they mirror Adobe Garamond (Regular, Bold, Italic, and Bold Italic). Other acceptable sans serif fonts are Gill Sans and Helvetica.

The District will greatly benefit from seeing a familiar and consistently used typeface being accurately applied to all materials that represent it.

As a general design rule, do not use more than two different typefaces in one piece.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Image Style

Photography is a powerful and dynamic tool. It should communicate the District's diversity, energy, and personality.

Photography should convey emotions and atmosphere. Look beyond the straightforward and typical to find a more inspirational perspective. Consider detail or unusual angles to increase impact and create effective communications. Our images show natural, real-life people and situations. They should convey emotions, atmosphere, and engage the audience.

Images should feel observational and spontaneous rather than staged, and show a contrast with our beautiful architecture and the energy of the people who interact with the campuses.

Images can be reproduced in full color, single color (monotone), and black and white.

Only use images that are relevant and add value. Ensure the content does not offend or alienate. Avoid clichés, and racial and gender stereotyping.

Images that are used in printed materials should be reproduced at print quality – 300 dpi.

Acceptable Photos

A) good composition and subject matter, pleasant faces, background not busy, great lighting

B) good composition and subject matter (happy students in front of building), great lighting, shows diverse students

C) great composition and lighting, shows diversity, students and professor looks engaged, shows learning

Unacceptable photos

E) bad lighting, harsh shadows from structure create geometrical shapes on faces

F) too far away from subject matter, foreground busy

G) students do not look thrilled and are not engaged in an activity

H) lots of noise, colors are washed out, slightly blurry due to slow shutter speed
