

Employer Paid Long Term Disability Insurance

Benefit Highlights San Diego Community College District
What is employer paid long term disability insurance?	Employer paid long term disability insurance pays you a portion of your earnings if you miss time at work because of a disabling illness or injury. This highlight sheet is an overview of your employer paid long term disability insurance. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.
What is disability?	Disability is defined in The Hartford's contract with your employer. Typically, disability means that you cannot perform with reasonable continuity the essential duties necessary to pursue your usual occupation in the usual or customary way. Once you have been disabled for 24 months following the elimination period, you are unable to engage with reasonable continuity in any occupation.
Am I eligible?	You are eligible if you are an active full-time employee who works at least 30 hours per week on a regularly scheduled basis, who is an academic certificated contract employee and academic manager with less than five years of service in the state teachers retirement system; a classified contract employee in the public employees retirement system; or a board member; excluding San Diego instructors who are part of the Navy Technical Training program.
How much coverage would I have?	Your employer provides coverage that pays you a benefit of 66.67% of your earnings to a maximum monthly benefit of $3,000 per month. This plan includes a minimum benefit of the greater of: 10% of the benefit based on monthly income loss before the deduction of other income benefits or $100 per month. Earnings are defined as in The Hartford's contract with your employer.
When can I enroll?	As an eligible employee, you are automatically covered by employer paid long term disability insurance; you do not have to enroll.
When is it effective?	Coverage goes into effect subject to the terms and conditions of the policy. You must be actively at work with your employer on the day your coverage takes effect.
How long do I have to wait before I can receive my benefit?	You must be disabled for at least 90 days before you can receive an employer paid long term disability insurance benefit payment.

Can the duration or amount of my benefit be reduced?	Yes. Your benefit duration may be reduced once you reach certain ages as specified in The Hartford's contract with your employer. In addition, as described below within the important details, your monthly long-term benefit may be reduced by other income you receive.
How long will my disability payments continue?	If you become disabled prior to age 63, benefits may continue for as long as you remain disabled or until the greater of your Social Security normal retirement age or 4 years. If your disability occurs at age 63 or above, the number of payments may reduce.

Important Details

The following is an overview of your employer paid long term disability insurance. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.

Exclusions:

You cannot receive employer paid long term disability insurance benefit payments for disabilities that are caused or contributed to by:

- war or act of war (declared or not)
- the commission of, or attempt to commit a felony
- an intentionally self-inflicted injury
- any case where your being engaged in an illegal occupation was a contributing cause to your disability

You must be under the regular care of a physician to receive benefits.

Mental Illness, Alcoholism and Substance Abuse:

- You can receive benefit payments for long-term disabilities resulting from mental illness, alcoholism and substance abuse for a total of 24 months for all disability periods during your lifetime.
- Any period of time that you are confined in a hospital or other facility licensed to provide medical care for mental illness, alcoholism and substance abuse does not count toward the 24 months lifetime limit.

Pre-existing Conditions:

This policy will not provide coverage for any period of Disability beginning within the first 12 months of the effective date of your coverage under this policy if the period of disability is caused by or substantially contributed to by a pre-existing condition or the medical or surgical treatment of a Pre-existing condition.

You have a Pre-existing condition if:

- You received medical treatment, care or services for a diagnosed condition or took prescribed medication for a diagnosed condition in the 3 months immediately prior to the effective date of coverage under this Insurance; or
- You suffered from a physical or mental condition, whether diagnosed or undiagnosed, which was misrepresented or not disclosed in your application and
- for which you received a physician's advice or treatment within 3 months before the date of your coverage under this policy; or
- which caused symptoms within 3 months before the date of issue for which a prudent person would usually seek medical advice or treatment.

Your benefit payments will be reduced by other income you receive or are eligible to receive due to your disability, such as:

- Social Security disability insurance (please see next section for exceptions)
- workers' compensation
- other employer-based insurance coverage you may have
- unemployment benefits
- settlements or judgments for income loss
- retirement benefits that your employer fully or partially pays for (such as a pension plan)

Your benefit payments will not be reduced by certain kinds of other income, such as:

- retirement benefits if you were already receiving them before you became disabled
- retirement benefits that are funded by your after-tax contributions
- your personal savings, investments, IRAs or Keoghs
- profit-sharing

- most personal disability policies
- Social Security increases
